Prepare staff to identify, assess, address and support students at risk for suicide and self-harm.

Suicide is the second leading cause of death among students, and educators are uniquely positioned to provide help when it's needed most. Using a blended approach that includes education and technology, the Guide to Preventing Suicide program includes nationally recognized models in an easy-to-use platform as well as suicide prevention curricula to prepare all staff to help prevent student suicide across your school district.

Nationally Recognized Models

- C-SSRS and SAFE-T models built into a guided suicide screening and management platform
- Reduce bias and ensure objectivity around each student identified with a consistent process
- Ensure administrators are doing all they can with the right conversations and next steps as teams screen and assess students at risk

Expert Curated Curriculum

- Curriculum written and curated by leading youth suicide prevention expert Dr. Scott Poland
- Robust and extensive eLearning for all staff who interact with students
- Extended curriculum for administrators and school mental health professionals to build a successful program

Documentation and Visibility

- Operationalize and scale your suicide prevention program while creating alignment across your district
- Gain visibility into cases, outcomes and trends with a consistent screening process in a guided platform
