START THE REST OF YOUR LIFE

There is a constant demand for these abilities in careers as diverse as aviation, engineering, finance, sports, entertainment and government. Many of today's public and private sector leaders in management, business, science, engineering, technology and other fields got their start with Army ROTC - so can you.

START NOW

So now you have a better understanding of how Army ROTC can help you start strong on a path to success. Become part of a select group of dedicated students who have the desire to stand out and be leaders who rise to challenges, are decisive and command respect. Start strong now by talking with a Professor of Military Science. Get the guidance and information you need to ensure that Army ROTC is right for you, right now.

ARMY ROTC

U.S. ARMY

BE A LEADER OF LEADERS

goarmy.com/rotc

START STRONG

Start strong in Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps). Give yourself an advantage with leadership classes throughout college and benefits like up to full-tuition, merit-based scholarships and other financial assistance. Stand out among your classmates when you graduate from college, able to earn a commission as a second lieutenant — an officer in the U.S. Army, Army National Guard or Army Reserve. Take advantage of this unique opportunity and see a future without limits.

DEVELOP YOUR POTENTIAL. DETERMINE YOUR FUTURE.

Some expect more of themselves. They have higher personal standards and loftier goals. They are doers and achievers. These people are leaders. Leaders earn respect through their ability to maintain composure under pressure. They set the example and establish the standards by which others measure themselves. Leaders inspire others to reach new heights and accomplish more than they ever dreamed possible.

Pride, confidence, a will to succeed — these are traits of a great leader. And they are traits of Army ROTC Cadets.

GO FOR GREATNESS.

Army ROTC is one of the best leadership courses in the country. It is offered at more than 1300 colleges and universities nationwide. During your time in college, Army ROTC will complement your education with instruction in leadership development, goal setting, military science, strategy and problem solving. Army ROTC will provide you an opportunity to develop these skills outside the classroom with practical, hands-on exercises and leadership training events. When you graduate and complete all of the training and academic requirements of the program, you will be commissioned as a second lieutenant — an officer in the Army, Army National Guard or Army Reserve.

THE 4-YEAR PROGRAM

The Army ROTC program is offered in addition to your regular college classes and allows you to pursue almost any major you choose. The first two years of Army ROTC course electives are the Basic Course, followed by the two final years of the Advanced Course. During the summer between your junior and senior years, your leadership training will be put to the test during an intensive five-week Leader Development and Assessment Course (LDAC).

THE 2-YEAR PROGRAM

This is an accelerated path toward becoming an Army officer. You may apply for this option if you have completed your studies at a junior college or community college; you are entering a two-year postgraduate program; you are a high school student planning to attend a military junior college; or you are entering your junior year of college. To qualify for the final two years of the Army ROTC Advanced Course, you must first attend and complete a four-week Leader's Training Course.

DISCOVER EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

NURSING. A commission as an officer in the Army Nurse Corps through ROTC means you have undergone valuable hands-on experience while developing your management and teamwork skills — skills highly prized by the world's finest hospitals. Learn more at goarmy.com/rotc.

SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING. Get experience most science and engineering majors would have to wait years for, such as the chance to work with the Signal Corps, the Chemical Corps or the Corps of Engineers. Learn more at goarmy.com/rotc.

FIND MORE WAYS TO GET THERE

SIMULTANEOUS MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM (SMP). This is for those who wish to join the Army National Guard or the Army Reserve while enrolled in Army ROTC. In most cases, these branches require a two-year commitment. Learn more at goarmy.com/reserve/benefits.

GREEN TO GOLD. If you're currently on active duty or have completed your service, you may already have fulfilled the requirements for the Basic Course. You may enroll directly in the Advanced Course and complete ROTC in just two years. Learn more at goarmy.com/rotc/enlisted-soldiers.html.

BE RECOGNIZED FOR YOUR MERIT

Do you have a distinguished academic record? Have you participated in after-school activities or even worked a part-time job? Are you physically active? These credentials may qualify you for a merit-based, up to full-tuition Army ROTC scholarship. These scholarships include the cost of classes, books, fees and even a living allowance of up to $5,000 per year.
