1. Integrating MTSS Into Your Comprehensive School Counseling Program (CSCP)

Carol Dahir

SPEAKER BIO: Carol A. Dahir, Ed.D., has recently retired as a professor and chair of the School Counseling Department at New York Institute of Technology and continues to teach part time at NYIT and NYU. She is a specialist in comprehensive school counseling program development, implementation, and evaluation. Carol Dahir is a past president of New York State School Counselor Association and served on the governing boards for the American School Counselor Association and the National Career Development Association. For more than 25 years, she has worked extensively with numerous state departments of education, large urban, suburban, and small school systems, school counselor associations, and national organizations as a consultant. She has delivered more than 375 workshops in 48 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico as well as internationally assisting nations developing comprehensive programs. Carol Dahir continues to focus her writing, research, and presentations on comprehensive school counseling program development, college and career readiness, accountability, principal-counselor relationships, cultural responsiveness, and continuous improvement for school counselors.

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Join Carol as she presents Integrating MTSS Into Your Comprehensive School Counseling Program (CSCP). Comprehensive school counseling programs and multitiered systems of support work hand in hand to support every student's academic and social-emotional development, and college and career readiness. Building administrators and school counselors, working together to identify student needs, can ensure that the comprehensive school counseling programs is delivered across Tier 1, Tier 2, and Tier 3. This session will focus on the "how to's" and the essential collaboration needed to ensure that the program is data driven, equity focused, and culturally responsive.

Carol will also be presenting two breakout sessions.

10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m.

2. Powerful Partnerships: Administrators and School Counselors Working Together to Support Students

Leigh Bagwell

SPEAKER BIO: Leigh Bagwell most recently served as the Director of School Counseling Services at the Tennessee Department of Education. She has led transformational work in school counseling throughout the state through the revision of the school counseling model and standards, the creation of a regional peersupport network, and the launch of a dedicated communications channel for counselors, supervisors and administrators. As a school counseling leader, her mission is to provide school counselors with the training and resources needed to deliver high quality, student driven, data informed comprehensive school counseling programs to all students. She believes counselors and school leaders need to work together more deliberately. This collaboration is critical to ensure that all students have access to the opportunities and supports they need to successfully move through their elementary, secondary, and postsecondary education into their chosen career.

In addition to her work in Tennessee, Leigh has shared her experiences and knowledge with school counselors and school counseling leaders in Georgia, Texas, Kentucky and Iowa as well as working with the American School Counselor Association. After teaching school counseling graduate students at Middle Tennessee State University, Leigh was inspired to pursue counselor education. She is currently working on her doctorate in Counselor Education and Supervision at the University of Tennessee. Her experience includes working as a school counselor and school counselor supervisor in both suburban and urban school districts.

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Join Leigh as she presents Powerful Partnerships: Administrators and School Counselors Working Together to Support Students. Successful comprehensive school counseling programs are built on effective collaborations between the school administrator and school counselor. While many administrators value their counselors and the work that they do, they have not been given training on the scope and depth of that work. Administrators want to be equipped with information that will help them more effectively support their school counseling program. This session will provide participants the opportunity to build a strong foundation of comprehensive school counseling programs. We will discuss the multiple ways strong school counseling contributes to student success within the three domains of academic achievement, social and emotional development, and college and career readiness. We will also discuss how to use that information as the foundation for a strong collaborative relationship between administrators and school counselors.

Leigh will also be presenting two breakout sessions.

Tuesday, June 14

8:30 a.m. – 9:45 a.m.

How Do You View the World? A Discussion of Diversity and Equity

Robert Jamison

SPEAKER BIO: Robert B. Jamison currently serves as a coordinator of school counseling services for a large suburban school division and has years of experience as a school counselor and school counseling department chair. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Virginia as well as his Master of Science in Education in School Counseling and his Education Specialist degrees from Old Dominion University. Mr. Jamison has also supported school counselors and educators as a member of the Board of Directors for a state school counselor association; and, he served on a state commission for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Robert is also the co-author of the book 15-Minute Focus: Diversity, Bias, and Privilege: Addressing Racial Inequities to Create Inclusive Learning Environments.

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Join Robert as he presents How Do You View the World? A Discussion of Diversity and Equity. The goal of this introspective session is for participants to think about diversity and equity through a more expansive lens. The presenter will review common terms used in schools, classrooms and organizations and how these terms relate to our behaviors. The session will also review things to consider when working with staff and students, and personal stories related to these topics will be shared. Participants will be asked to participate in individual, small and large group activities throughout the presentation.

Robert will also be presenting a breakout session.
