

FROM THE PRESIDENT

College is a wonderful time of discovery — truly among your most formative years. What you learn and experience during this time sets the course for the rest of your life. It helps define what you know and who you are.

At UT Tyler, we strive to make your time at the university as educational and engaging as possible, offering unique real-world problem solving across our curriculum. Whether you already know your academic destination or still need time to explore opportunities, UT Tyler will meet you where you are and set you on the path for success.

I invite you to learn more about our nationally recognized academic programs, hands-on research, vibrant student life and NCAA Division II athletics, and I'm certain that you will discover that UT Tyler is the right choice for your future.

KIRK A. CALHOUN, MD, FACP

DISCOVER YOU College should be a time of discovery - and we don't just mean learning opportunities. It's about pursuing your passions, finding your people and discovering your path.
