"Winthrop is far more than just a university and campus; it is a community where people from all backgrounds can come together and feel completely at home."

- Conor Maher from Wexford, Ireland

Prepare yourself

The core of your Winthrop experience will be earning a degree. A degree from Winthrop is one that will take you far—backed by our national-caliber academic programs and led by our esteemed faculty. This Winthrop family will be committed to supporting and challenging you in your journey to that hard-earned diploma. From there, the possibilities are endless.

AACSB-accredited business school, a designation held by less than 5% of programs worldwide

One of only 37 universities nationally with all arts programs accredited (and the only one in South Carolina)

Graduates of Winthrop's teacher education program are regularly recognized as Teacher of the Year at school, district and state levels

Get Engaged

There's nothing down about "down time" at Winthrop. With more than 150 student activities, clubs and organizations, there's no shortage of ways to get involved. Get active in our state-of-the-art fitness and recreation center. Catch an event put on by the DiGiorgio Student Union or a movie in Dina's Place. View artwork in the Winthrop Galleries or attend a theatre, dance or music performance. Whatever you're into, there's something for you here.

"I just really liked how intentional they were about freshmen creating relationships. Those relationships have really allowed me to flourish here."

— Cameryn Mitchell
from Memphis, Tennessee

This journey will change your life

“What I’ve learned here will carry until the end of my career. The relationships I’ve built with students and faculty are amazing. It has really inspired me to go beyond what I thought I’d be doing.”

– Catalina Zavala Olvera from Gilbert, South Carolina

“I chose Winthrop because of the small, tight-knit community that was welcoming of everyone. With such a diverse and welcoming community, everyone feels at home and is free and safe to explore every possible opportunity free of judgment. That stood out against all other colleges or communities I’d seen.” – Carson Ruffing from Duncan, South Carolina

“My experience at Winthrop has changed my perspective on how I look at things, and changed my way of learning, talking to people and meeting new people.” – Catheryn Condon from Pawleys Island, South Carolina

“The energy that everyone at Winthrop has is truly fascinating because everyone just wants to see each other succeed. Everyone is so engaged with each other on campus, and you see it every single day, whether it’s stopping by an athletic event or even a tabling event during Common Time, people always go out of their way to support one another.” – Itzel Lara from Los Angeles, California

“I love the diversity on campus — It is very inclusive, from the programs to the people. I feel embraced here.” – Ryan Kouame from Greenville, South Carolina
