It's Not Enough to "DO EQUITY" ...You Must "BE EQUITY": A Discussion on "Equity Mindset" Counseling

Principal Baruti Kafele

ABOUT THIS SESSION: THE topic in education today is the topic of EQUITY. At its core, equity means, "meeting youngsters where they are, as they are." Principal Kafele argues that this requires educators who possess an "EQUITY MINDSET." He asserts that if equity is all about meeting the individual needs of all of the learners in the classroom, "equity can't solely be something THAT YOU DO." He states emphatically that "equity must additionally be WHO YOU ARE." In this high energy keynote address, Principal Kafele will share strategies with counselors toward ensuring equitable opportunities for EACH of the learners in their schools.

SPEAKER BIO: A highly-regarded urban public school educator in New Jersey for over twenty years, Principal Kafele distinguished himself in the classroom and as a school leader. As an elementary school teacher in East Orange, NJ, he was selected as the East Orange School District and Essex County Public Schools Teacher of the Year. As a principal, he led the transformation of four different schools, including "the mighty" Newark Tech, which went from a low-performing school in need of improvement to recognition by U.S. News and World Report Magazine as one of America's best high schools. Currently, Principal Kafele is one of the most sought-after speakers for transforming the attitudes of at-risk student populations in America.

Principal Kafele will also be presenting a breakout session.
