The William James College Center for Behavioral Health, Equity, and Leadership in Schools is partnering to create more just, healthy, and productive learning environments.

Our academic and licensure offerings are built around the Center's focus on diversity, equity, and inclusion, social-emotional learning, and behavioral health, and are informed by William James College's deep expertise and experience in graduate-level psychology education.

As an employee of a partner school district, you are eligible for an incredible opportunity to further your education and your career with a Graduate Certificate in School Leadership for Educational Equity, Racial Understanding, and Organizational Transformation. We are grateful to METCO and Boston Public Schools who helped us launch the first cohort of the program in 2022.

The Graduate Certificate in School Leadership is a principal preparation program aligned to the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education administrator standards. Designed for current and aspiring school leaders, this exciting program integrates academics with your lived experiences in a school setting, offering the best learning outcomes. The program's flexible, online delivery makes advancing your education convenient for working professionals with busy schedules.

Through this educational partnership with your school district, all employees who apply to start the program in Summer 2023 will be considered for a $7,500 Scholarship.
