

SENIOR ARMY RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS (SROTC)

ARMY ROTC

FACTS

- Designed to train young men and women to be Officers in the US Army.
- Offered at over 900 Colleges and Universities. You can find out which Colleges have an Army ROTC program at: <https://www.goarmy.com/rotc/find-schools.html>
- High School Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) is not a prerequisite.
- To participate (take the freshman and/or sophomore classes) the individual must:
- Be a full-time student at a participating College/University pursuing a degree.
- To contract and pursue a commission in the US Army the individual must:
 - Be a US Citizen
 - Be medically qualified to join the US Army
 - Be 17-29 years old
 - Have no criminal record
 - Have no current or history of "illegal" drug use
 - Pass the Cadet Command approved Fitness test (alternative event not allowed)
 - Meet Army height / Weight standards
 - Meet specified minimum academic standards
 - SMP Cadets require a 31 on the ASVAB and may require a min on the PSAT or SAT or ACT or GT score

 Depending on specifics the individual MAY be able to request a waiver.

- Contracted Cadets will:
 - Get a stipend of $420 a month while in school
 - Spend 10-20 hours a week with ROTC activities (class, physical training, labs etc)

SCHOLARSHIPS

- High school applicants have to take a Standardized test (SAT or ACT) but there is no minimum score requirement and an unweighted GPA of 2.5 or better in High School.
- College applicants must have college Cumulative and most recent Term GPAs of 2.5 or better.
- Pays full tuition/fees or $10,000 a year toward Room and board (not both).
- Scholarship awards are not final until the Cadet contracts.
- High School students can apply for a scholarship at:
<https://www.goarmy.com/rotc/scholarships.html>

*Not all qualified applicants are awarded a scholarship.

CONTACTS

Charles Geter
(910) 396-9652

charles.e.geter.civ@army.mil

Rich Hutson
(910) 528-4450

richard.e.hutson2.civ@army.mil