Challenge Yourself to Find Yourself

Progress Rooted in Passion

Our distinctive philosophy of learning (theory, practice, performance) is rooted in our founding as a music conservatory. We believe that academic theory combined with hands-on practice and put into action through our emphasis on performance, provides a foundation for transformation. This integrative approach to education generates unparalleled opportunities for personal mentorship, interdisciplinary collaboration, and meaningful inquiry. It's what only IC can offer, for what only you can do.

You Are More Than Your Major

The melding of intellectual exploration with action is at the heart of our five schools. Whether you're studying in the School of Business, Communications, Health Sciences and Human Performance, Humanities and Sciences, or Music, Theatre, and Dance, you will learn and grow in ways that extend far beyond your chosen major.

Discover Your Path by Walking It

Not sure what you want to study? In IC's distinctive Exploratory Program, you can take classes in a variety of fields, getting guidance and direct experience to find the major that's right for you—and still graduate on time!

A Place to Call Home

Being Here Is Everything

A tight-knit community that invites you to live your passions and discover new ones, a thriving college town ranked #1 in the nation (livability.com), a region renowned for waterfalls, stunning gorges, and hikes that inspire discovery—the Ithaca vibe isn't something we can easily describe. It's something you have to experience.

“

Ithaca has given me a community of people who are constantly helping me, and I'm not afraid to walk into a room and be the different one there.”

Vibrant Campus Life

More than 75% of our students live on campus. And why not? With friends, teachers, and staff who shape your life, you'll have great experiences right here.

A City Where You Belong

Whether you're expanding your palate in our amazing restaurants, finding a moment of quiet on Cayuga Lake, or taking inspiration from our famous murals, you'll find your place here and be an active part of creating a more just world.
