IN-PERSON EXPERIENCE OR VIRTUAL OPTION

We are excited that the 2024 MASCA Conference will offer both an in-person experience and a virtual option! Whether you would like to getaway from your routine or stay in the comfort of your own home we have options for you. See the breakdown for what each offers.

All who register will have access to the virtual conference portal. The virtual conference portal will stream the general sessions live and will have those recorded live sessions available to view about one week following the conference if missed on those dates. The online portal will also have prerecorded breakout sessions covering multiple topics available to view when the conference begins on April 8, 2024. The pre-conference sessions will only be live and in person. They will not be available with the virtual option.

All sessions in the online portal will be available to view until May 31, 2024.

 Available for in-person only

The Pre-Conference Learning Sessions are only available to in-person attendees. They are not available for the virtual option.

The Pre-Conference Learning Sessions are an additional opportunity for more professional development and CEU contact hours. The sessions generally cover more in-depth information and allow more opportunity for discussion.

These sessions are not included in the conference registration fee.

Monday, April 8 | 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

1. Adult Social Emotional Learning: Cultivating Communities that Thrive

Gianna Cassetta

ABOUT THIS SESSION: SEL research indicates that Adult SEL competency development is key to student and school success. Adult SEL helps us communicate effectively, handle stress productively, and form attuned relationships. In this workshop, participants will explore:

- The neuroscience of Adult SEL, emotions, and change.
- The role of identity and unconscious bias in our own SEL development.
- Cultivating school communities where both adults and students thrive.

Monday, April 8 | 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

2. AI Tools for Counselors: You've Got a Friend in AI

Ryan Robidoux, James Burke, and Ali Robidoux

ABOUT THIS SESSION: This informative session provides resources and strategies on how to integrate Artificial Intelligence (AI) into school counseling practices. From communication tools that translate and differentiate language to generative tools that create lesson plans and presentations, AI can be a support for any school counselor. Participants will also discuss the growing ethical and privacy concerns surrounding the use of AI. Join us to learn and explore AI!

Monday, April 8 | 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

3. Comprehensive Postsecondary Planning for Designated Pathways

Jennifer McGuire, Adam Seidel, and Ainsley Robles

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Does your school have a designated pathway program? Come learn how New Bedford Public Schools has partnered with OneGoal to ensure ALL Early College students access meaningful postsecondary exploration, planning and support aligned to MyCAP and the Mass Model 3.0. Participants will dive into collaborative planning focused on common barriers to implementation. Teams from schools encouraged!

Monday, April 8 | 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

4. Group Counseling Interventions to Support the Transition to College

Leo Costa

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Learn how our college counseling department has delivered Tier 2 group interventions to support mostly FGLI students in the transition to college. Two examples include groups specifically geared towards The First-Generation Experience and Stressed About Life After High School. Presenters will share ideas and model a group for needs assessments, student identification, and group counseling curriculum.

Monday, April 8 | 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

5. MA Model and MyCAP: Better Together for Student Success!

Lisa Harney, Lisa Weinstein, Cynthia Esielionis, and Mia Riccio

ABOUT THIS SESSION: This presentation will provide an overview of each initiative and a demonstration on how to braid the two initiatives to focus on the three domains of personal, social, emotional development; career development; and academic and postsecondary success. In addition, there will be a presentation from schools who are implementing both initiatives.

Monday, April 8 | 10:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. with lunch break

6. Principal-School Counselor Collaboration for Staff and Student Wellness

Jacqueline Zeller and Linda Anderson

ABOUT THIS SESSION: This interactive session will describe the importance of collaboration between school principals and school counselors to support the wellbeing of students, staff, and school communities. The presentation will incorporate literature and research that describes the importance of principal-school counselor professional collaboration to support the wellbeing of students and school staff, as well as strategies for supporting staff wellbeing.

Opening Workshop Session • Monday, April 8 | 3:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.*

School Counseling on the RISE!

Lisa Koenecke

ABOUT THIS SESSION: Who uplifts you on a daily basis? It's okay if it is a pet, no, really. Maybe it's a student, a friend, or a family member? Maya Angelou's empowering poem "Still I Rise" inspires us to embrace our vital roles as educational leaders. Through Raising awareness, Inclusive policies, Supportive practices and Equitable empowerment, we will uplift our communities one ALLY at a time! Together we will RISE as school counselors to become even better collaborative leaders advocating for systemic change!

SPEAKER BIO: As an experienced and energetic Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) professional speaker and facilitator, Lisa specializes in counteracting unconscious bias and LGBTQ+ inclusion in business. Her impact is amplified through strengthening each person's allyship. With a demonstrated history of working in secondary education and a passion toward community and social services, she is an expert in counseling, crisis intervention, educational leadership, and program development.

After receiving her Diversity & Inclusion certification from Cornell University, Lisa has also earned her LGBT Business Enterprise Certification from the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce. Being an expert in LGBTQ+ issues has allowed her to present internationally and from coast to coast. Lisa also holds the Inclusion Institute Certified Diversity Practitioner certification (IICDP) and a MS degree in Counseling.

Lisa's speaking style can best be described as dynamic, energetic, and interactive. After 12 years of being a middle school counselor, she is now an adjunct instructor at Lakeland University training the next generation of school counselors.

Tuesday, April 9 | 8:15 a.m. – 9:15 a.m.*

Wildly Agile

Chris Heeter

ABOUT THIS SESSION: How do we stay connected and engaged in a relentlessly changing and challenging landscape? How do we support one another, solve problems, and continue to be powerful advocates for students and their families? Join wilderness guide and dog musher Chris Heeter for a discussion about how to show up with your "Wild" self. Heeter's fresh perspective will give you new insights on the shifting terrain of school counseling and association leadership. Learn how to adapt to what you know now and how to continue to find your way in the wild.

SPEAKER BIO: Featured on National Geographic Today and recognized with national speaking awards, Chris also shares a team of 26 Alaskan Huskies with her mushing partner. With stories from 30+ years of wilderness leadership experience and 20+ years of speaking all across North America, the abundant parallels between these adventures and the world of work make up the core of her presentations. Chris brings Wild to the workplace to help free us from the trappings of 'how we've always done it, and to support organizations, leaders, and teams in pulling to their potential.
