Specialized Residential Treatment for Your Child

About Us

For over 80 years, San Marcos Treatment Center has been providing intensive residential treatment for children and adolescents who struggle with mental health issues from all over the nation and overseas. Founded in 1940, our vision is to provide high quality child and adolescent psychiatric residential care and help our patients become healthier, educated and more self-aware, with sustainable skills and strong future outcomes, helping caregiving networks become more connected and hopeful. We are located in the beautiful hill country of San Marcos, Texas, between Austin and San Antonio.

We realize that finding the right residential treatment center for your child can be daunting. We are here to answer your questions and make the transition as smooth as possible. Call us at 800-848-9090, or learn more at sanmarcostc.com. We are here to help children and teens get back on track with their lives.
