why WINTHROP

"I didn't think I'd like a smaller school, but Winthrop surprised me. The campus isn't overwhelming and it's big enough to meet new people and get involved in stuff, but small enough that you're not lost in the crowd. It's been a great place to grow and try new things."

— Katelyn Conrad '27, Early Childhood Education

"I chose Winthrop because it's one of the few schools that gave me a shot to do research earlier than other schools. The professors here actually know you by name, and it just feels like a second home already. I felt like I belonged from day one."

— Ben McCann '28, Business Finance

"The vibe sold me. Winthrop's campus felt cozy but focused. I'm not into giant lecture halls with 400 people. Here, my classes are small enough that my professors actually know when I miss a day, and Rock Hill is close to Charlotte, so internships are everywhere."

— Xavier Johnson '25, Political Science
