100% COVERAGE OF IN-STATE TUITION

Soldiers in the New Jersey Army National Guard are eligible to attend any NJ Public College or University with full coverage of their tuition for undergraduate and graduate studies. Requirements are that the Soldier must have completed BCT & AIT. (Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training)

SPLIT TRAINING OPTION

The Split Training Option (STO) in the Army National Guard allows high school juniors to join the Guard while still in school. The program splits training into two summers, with weekend drills during the school year. This allows participants to continue their education without taking a break and earn with a part-time job during school.
