Connect with what matters to you

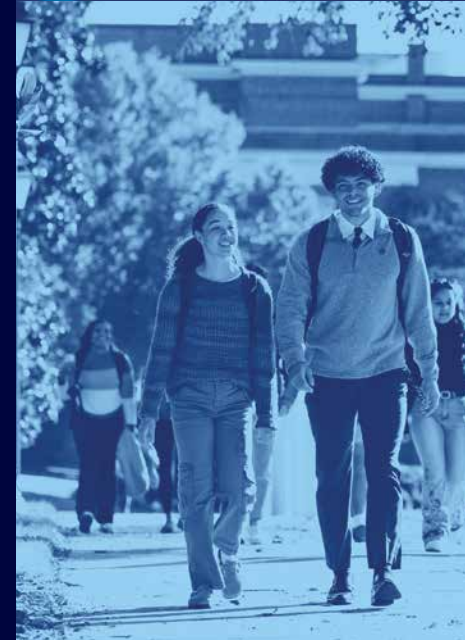

MAKE THE RIGHT CONNECTIONS AT A TOP-10 PUBLIC UNIVERSITY IN THE SOUTH

(U.S. News & World Report, 2026)

It's not just learning facts and figures. It's connecting to the real-world issues that matter most to you. That's Civitae, Longwood's distinct approach to education that will prepare you for a meaningful life and career. You'll take cross-disciplinary courses that address important topics. Work alongside faculty on research. And explore far-off destinations in our Brock Experiences, examining pressing topics and forming lasting bonds with other Lancers.

PREPARE FOR A MEANINGFUL LIFE AND CAREER

Experiences like these help you build the skills employers are looking for while broadening your perspective and helping you discover how you want to make an impact in your career and community.

Civita Core Curriculum

In this distinctive set of courses, you'll connect ideas across disciplines while exploring real-world topics and questions that help you better understand an increasingly complex world.

Cormier Honors College for Citizen Scholars

In this community of focused and like-minded students, your experience at Longwood will be enhanced as you live and learn through scholarship and service.

Brock Experiences

Travel the country to destinations like Alaska, Puerto Rico and San Francisco while exploring topics as diverse as natural resources, genetics, arts and culture.

Service Opportunities

Helping others is central to being a Lancer. You'll have opportunities to take part in numerous volunteer and service projects. That includes cleaning up watersheds, collecting items for shelters, helping at-risk kids and much more.

Center for Career Success

Throughout your time on campus and beyond, you'll build relationships with career coaches, employers and Longwood alumni who can help you explore opportunities and achieve your goals.

#1 FOR INTERNSHIPS

Longwood is the best in Virginia for internships, according to the State Council of Higher Education, with just about every student graduating with a resume filled with career experiences from across the state and beyond.

LIFELONG CONNECTIONS START HERE

With a vibrant community and timeless traditions, opportunities to grow, learn and connect aren't limited to just the classroom at Longwood. Get ready for the time of your life!

TRADITIONS

Oktoberfest

A fall weekend of fun and relaxation highlighted by live music, bonfires and lots (and we mean lots!) of paint.

Color Wars

Lancers sling paint at each other during fall's Oktoberfest.

Spring Weekend

Taylor Swift, Dierks Bentley and Fetty Wap have performed at this event.

The GAME

Each year during Homecoming and Alumni Weekend in November, Lancers gather to cheer on Longwood and receive The Scarf—an iconic symbol of belonging and tradition.

Late-Night Breakfast

A meal among Lancers to help lower stress during exams.

Oozeball

Prepare to get really dirty in this mud-soaked game of volleyball.

Secret Societies

Working in secrecy, CHI, Princes and CAHOOTS promote Longwood spirit, leadership and community throughout campus.

Convocation

A long-standing Longwood tradition highlighted by the “capping” of seniors by their friends.

ROOTED IN COMMUNITY

Located just off campus, the Longwood-run Moton Museum honors a local high school's 1951 student-led strike for educational equality. With 30% of our students self-identified as people of color, it's just one of the many ways Longwood champions and supports all backgrounds, cultures and perspectives.
