Merit-Based Scholarships

WHAT ARE THEY? Competitively awarded scholarships based on a combination of academic achievements, factors provided in a student's personal statement or essay, and potential for scholarly contributions to the Pitt community.

HOW TO APPLY:

- Submit all required admission materials by December 1
- Students are automatically considered—no separate application needed
- Only available for U.S. citizens or permanent residents
- Scholarship notifications sent between late October and March 1

OUR HOLISTIC REVIEW PROCESS:

- Weighted GPA and curriculum rigor
- Strength of essay/personal statement
- Academic major and/or professional school
- Timing of complete application (rolling review)

BY THE NUMBERS:

- Less than 20% of admitted students receive merit scholarships
- Awards range from $2,000 to $20,000 per year
- Renewable for four years/eight semesters with Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Comparing offers? Look at “net cost”* rather than scholarship amounts alone.
